1. On 6 August 2012, a resolution in relation to the issuance of short-term commercial papers was considered and approved at the 2012 third extraordinary general meeting of the Company, whereby the Company has been given a mandate to issue short-term commercial papers within the domestic inter-bank bond market in the People's Republic of China short-term commercial papers with a principal amount of not exceeding RMB2 billion which could be issued in multiple tranches. The Company completed the registration of its short-term commercial papers of RMB2 billion on 31 October 2012. The Company also issued the first tranche of its short-term commercial papers for 2012 with a principal amount of RMB500 million on 18 December 2012. On 26 September 2014, the Company completed the issuance of the first tranche of its short-term commercial papers for 2014 (the "Commercial Papers"). The total issued principal amount of the Commercial Papers was RMB1 billion with a maturity period of 365 days and a unit face value of RMB100 and the interest rate was 5.15% per annum. The proceeds from the issuance of the Commercial Papers will be used to repay bank loans of the Company and to supplement working capital of the subsidiaries of Fosun Pharma.
2. On 18 April 2014, a resolution in relation to the amendment to the Privatization ("Privatization") of Chindex International, Inc. ("Chindex") and the transfer of 30% equity interest in Chindex Medical Limited ("CML") to the Company (through holding subsidiaries) was considered and approved at the 22nd meeting of the sixth session of the Board of the Company (extraordinary meeting). The amended proposal for the Privatization was submitted to the independent committee of the board of Chindex (the "Transaction Committee"), pursuant to which, Fosun Industrial Co., Limited ("Fosun Industrial", a wholly-owned subsidiary of the Company) will be merged with Chindex and the privatization will be completed by way of share rollovers and purchase of the remaining shares of Chindex through Healthy Harmony Acquisition Inc., a wholly-owned subsidiary of Fosun Industrial's investee Healthy Harmony Holdings L.P.. The consideration for the transfer of shares of Chindex was US$24.00 per share, and Fosun Industrial intended to participate in the privatization of Chindex with a total consideration of not exceeding US$223.62 million and its 3,157,163 class A common stock of Chindex. On 18 April 2014 (U.S. Eastern Time), the Transaction Committee of Chindex accepted the above amended proposed Privatization. The above privatization and transfer of 30% equity interest of CML were considered and approved at the 2013 AGM of the Company held on 30 June 2014. The relevant approvals (including the anti-trust filing) from the relevant PRC authorities have been obtained. On 29 September 2014 (U.S. Eastern Time), the closing of the share rollovers and the merger have taken place.

3.5 Effect of implementation of new accounting standards on consolidated financial statements

During the period from January to July 2014, the Ministry of Finance promulgated the Accounting Standard for Business Enterprises No. 39 — Fair Value Measurement, Accounting Standard for Business Enterprises No. 40 — Joint Arrangements and Accounting Standard for Business Enterprises No. 41 — Disclosure of Equity Interest in other entities, and amended the Accounting Standard for Business Enterprises No. 30 — Presentation of Financial Statements, Accounting Standard for Business Enterprises No. 9 — Employee Benefits, Accounting Standard for Business Enterprises No. 33 — Consolidated Financial Statements, Accounting Standard for Business Enterprises No. 2 — Long-term Equity Investments, Accounting Standard for Business Enterprises No. 37 — Presentation of Financial Instruments and Accounting Standard for Business Enterprises — Basic Standard. The above nine accounting standards (excluding the revised Accounting Standard for Business Enterprises No. 37 — Presentation of Financial instruments and Accounting Standard for Business Enterprises — Basic Standard) became effective from 1 July 2014. The revised Accounting Standard for Business Enterprises — Basic Standard was effective from 23 July 2014. The revised Accounting Standard for Business Enterprises No. 37 — Presentation of Financial Instrument shall be implemented in the financial report from 2014 onwards, and overseas listed enterprises are encouraged to implement the revised standards in advance. As an overseas listed company, the Group has implemented the Accounting Standard for Business Enterprises No. 39 — Fair Value Measurement, Accounting Standard for Business Enterprises No. 40 — Joint Arrangements, and the revised Accounting Standard for Business Enterprises No. 30 — Presentation of Financial Statements, Accounting Standard for Business Enterprises No. 9 — Employee Benefits and Accounting Standard for Business Enterprises No. 33 — Consolidated Financial Statements in advance and made adjustment in accordance with the relevant transitional requirements when preparing the financial report for 2013.

When preparing the third quarterly financial statements for 2014, the Group has implemented the Accounting Standard for Business Enterprises No. 41 — Disclosure of Equity Interest in Other Entities and the revised Accounting Standard for Business Enterprises No. 2 — Long-term Equity Investments, Accounting Standard for Business Enterprises No. 37 — Presentation of Financial Instruments and Accounting Standard for Business Enterprises — Basic Standard and made adjustment in accordance with the relevant transitional requirements.

Before 1 July 2014, the equity investment which the Group did not have joint control or significant influence over the investees, which were not quoted in an active market and whose fair value could not be reliably measured was recognized as long-term equity investment using cost method. According to the Accounting Standard for Business Enterprises No. 2 — Long-term Equity Investments as amended by the Ministry of Finance in 2014, the long-term equity investment which the Group did not have joint control or significant influence over the investees, which were not quoted in an active market and whose fair value could not be reliably measured, of RMB1,206,443,978.57 was recognized as available-for-sale financial assets. Moreover, the balance as at the beginning of the year has been adjusted retrospectively. The balance of long-term equity investment of RMB991,621,088.37 as at the beginning of the year was recognized as available-for-sale financial assets.

Before 1 July 2014, when the Group accounted for the long-term equity investment in associates using equity method, the book value of long-term equity investment shall be adjusted based on the change in equity attributable to the owners arising from the change in shareholding of investor due to capital injection by other shareholders to the investee and the equity attributable to the Group, and accounted for investment gain. According to the Accounting Standard for Business Enterprises No. 2 — Long-term Equity Investments as amended by the Ministry of Finance in 2014, the Company has adjusted the book value of long-term equity investment based on the other changes (including the change in equity attributable to the owners arising from the change in shareholding of investor due to capital injection by other shareholders to the investee) in equity attributable to the owners of the investee (excluding net gain and loss, other comprehensive gain and profit distribution), and account for capital reserve (other capital reserve). Where the equity investment is disposed of subsequently and the remaining equity interest is accounted for using equity method, the capital reserve has been transferred to current investment gain in proportion to the disposal. Where the remaining equity interest is not accounted for using equity method, the capital reserve shall be fully transferred to current investment gain. In accordance with the implementation of the above new standards and the change in accounting policy, the Group has adjusted the investment gain, income tax, capital reserve and unappropriated profits for the current Reporting Period, and has adjusted the above four accounting items retrospectively. The effects of the above change in accounting policy on the consolidated financial statements of the Group for the third quarter of 2014 and the comparative period are as follow:

Particulars of the impact on the consolidated financial report arising from the changes in long-term equity investment standards (2)

Before 1 July 2014, when the Group accounted for the long-term equity investment using equity method, the book value of long-term equity investment shall be adjusted based on the change in equity attributable to the owners arising from the change in shareholding of investor due to capital injection by other shareholders to the investee and the equity attributable to the Group, and accounted for investment gain. According to the Accounting Standard for Business Enterprises No. 2 — Long-term Equity Investments as amended by the Ministry of Finance in 2014, the Group shall adjust the book value of long-term equity investment based on the other changes (including the change in equity attributable to the owners arising from the change in shareholding of investor due to capital injection by other shareholders to the investee) of in equity attributable to the owners of the investee (excluding net gain and loss, other comprehensive gain and profit distribution), and account for capital reserve (other capital reserve). Where the equity investment is disposed of subsequently but the remaining equity interest is accounted for using equity method, the capital reserve has been transferred to current investment gain in proportion to the disposal. Where the remaining equity interest is not accounted for using equity method, the capital reserve shall be fully transferred to current investment gain, and retrospective adjustments shall be made.

3.5.3 Impact arising from the changes in employee benefits standard

The Accounting Standards for Business Enterprises No. 9 — Employee Benefits introduced post-employment benefits (especially beneficiary scheme) and other long-term employee's benefits and clarified provisions relating to short-term emoluments and termination benefits. The Group prepared the third quarterly financial statements for 2014 in accordance with the requirements of the standard. The adoption of such standard had no significant effects on the financial position and operating results of the Group.

3.5.4 Impact arising from the changes in scope of consolidation

The Accounting Standards for Business Enterprises No. 33 — Consolidation of Financial Statements” introduced a single control model to determine whether an investee should be consolidated, which primarily depends on whether the Group has power over the investee, whether it is entitled to variable returns through the participation in the relevant activities of the investee and whether it has the ability to affect the amount of returns by using its power over the investee. The Group made amendments to its accounting policies as to whether it has control over the investee and whether the investee should be included into the scope of consolidation pursuant to the requirements under this standard and prepared 2014 third quarterly financial statements accordingly. The adoption of such standard did not change the scope of consolidation determined by the Group.

3.5.5 Impact arising from the changes in classification of joint venture arrangements

The Accounting Standards for Business Enterprises No. 40 — Joint Arrangements standardized the definition and categorization of joint arrangements as well as the accounting treatments of the rights and interests regarding different parties of the joint arrangements, pursuant to which the Group classified its joint arrangements into joint operations and joint ventures, amended its accounting policies regarding such joint arrangements, and re-evaluated its participation in joint arrangements. The Group prepared the third quarterly financial statements for 2014 in accordance with the requirements of the standard. The adoption of such standard had no significant effects on the financial position and operating results of the Group.

3.5.6 Impact arising from the changes in other standards

1. Presentation of financial statements

The Accounting Standards of Business Enterprises No. 30 — Presentation of Financial Statements required that the presentation of “Items of Other Comprehensive Income” in income statement shall be classified as “items to be re-classified into profit or loss having satisfied the stipulated conditions in the subsequent accounting period” and “items not to be re-classified into profit or loss”. The Group prepared the third quarterly financial statements for 2014 in accordance with the requirements of the standard. Meanwhile, the Group will make disclosure on relevant financial information when preparing the financial statements for 2014 in accordance with other disclosure requirements under the Accounting Standards of Business Enterprises No. 30 — Presentation of Financial Statements.

2. Fair Value Measurement

The Accounting Standards of Business Enterprises No. 39 — Fair Value Measurement redefined fair value, established a unified framework for measuring fair value, clarified valuation techniques and fair value hierarchy, and standardized disclosure requirements on fair value. The revised Accounting Standards for Business Enterprises-Basic Standards amended the expression of “fair value”, which, as revised, is consistent with that in the Accounting Standards of Business Enterprises No. 39 — Fair Value Measurement. The Group prepared the third quarterly financial statements for 2014 in accordance with the requirements of the standard. The adoption of such standard had no significant effects on the measurement of fair value of the assets and liabilities of the Group.

3. Disclosure of Interests in Other Entities

The Accounting Standards for Business Enterprises No. 41 — Disclosure of Interests in Other Entities clarified the objectives of disclosing interest in other entities as to assist users of such financial statements in evaluating the nature and related risks of such interest and impact of such interest on corporate financial condition, operating results and cash flow by requiring disclosure of financial information by subsidiaries, joint ventures and associates with significant minority equity interest and adding disclosure of interest in structured entities. The Group will make disclosure on relevant financial information when preparing the financial statements for 2014 in accordance with the Accounting Standards for Business Enterprises No. 41 — Disclosure of Interests in Other Entities.

4. Presentation of Financial Instruments

The Accounting Standards for Business Enterprises No. 37 — Presentation of Financial Instruments clarified the requirements on distinguishing equity instruments from financial liabilities and those on offsetting financial assets and financial liabilities in finer detail and introduced more detailed requirements on such disclosure, including but not limited to those on financial asset transfer. The Group prepared the third quarterly financial statements for 2014 in accordance with the requirements of the standard. The adoption of such standard had no significant effects on the financial position and operating results of the Group. Meanwhile, the Group will make disclosure on relevant financial information when preparing the financial statements for 2014 in accordance with other disclosure requirements under the Accounting Standards for Business Enterprises No. 37 — Presentation of Financial Instruments.

3.5.7 Others

Save for the above, the said changes in accounting policies did not have other material impact on disclosures of opening values and current values during the period in the financial statements of the Group and the Company for the third quarter of 2014 and those for the comparative periods.
